

AUSTRALIAN COLLECTORS &
DEBT BUYERS ASSOCIATION

INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS

Membership of the Australian Collectors & Debt Buyers Association (ACDBA) is available as follows:

MEMBER – for corporations principally engaged in debt collections or debt purchasing activities and willing to meet the full criteria of membership.

Compliance and transparency is at the heart of ACDBA membership.

Disclosure:

Members are required to provide the following data on an annual basis to ACDBA for the aggregation and publication of non-identifying industry statistics. Only aggregated and non-identifying data is released by the ACDBA, and information is compiled by a suitably qualified external consultant prior to being supplied to the ACDBA. Members agree to provide this data including:

- Number and value of debts under collection
- Breakdown of debts in terms of contingent collections and debt purchase collections
- Number of accounts under payment arrangements
- Number of employees in terms of contingent collections and debt purchase collections •
- Total value collected from accounts
- Breakdown of number of contacts with debtors in terms of telephone, SMS, letters and emails
- Number of complaints received from debtors in the preceding period including summary breakdown of how handled i.e. via IDR or EDR together with a summary of outcomes
- Details of any notifications by regulators of alleged breaches in preceding period together with summary of outcomes.

The current membership fees are:

Class of membership	No of employees working on Australian Debt *	Annual Fee including GST
MEMBER	0 to 15	$3,370.00
	16 to 50	$6,740.00
	51 to 100	$13,370.00
	Over 101	$15,000.00

Note: Membership fees are charged on a financial year (FY) basis. If a member joins partway through the year, fees will be calculated on a pro-rata basis. The pro-rata amount is calculated based on the number of months (or quarters) remaining in the financial year at the time of joining.

* Employees working on Australian Debt for calculating Membership Tiers means “all full time employed collection staff (wherever they are located) only working on Australian purchased and/or outsourced debt”. [This definition is intended to exclude any staff involved in legal practices that are not working on debt matters or staff working in Finance or Corporate areas, or in the case of members with Credit Reporting and/or Bureau businesses the staff involved in those areas.]
